Education of Youth in Missoula County Detention Center

Missoula County Public Schools' recognizes that youth residing in the County Detention Center are entitled to public education. The youth in residence at the Detention Center may or may not live in the Missoula County Public School District, and therefore, may be subject to out-of-District tuition fees. Missoula County Public Schools' Board of Trustees agrees to waive tuition for youth residing at the County Detention Center, enabling them to enroll in the MCPS detention education program and receive credit from MCPS for course work completed. The enrollment will be in accordance with the conditions of File 3141.
