Dear Paxson Community,

Last spring, the entire faculty and staff of Paxson Elementary gathered to create a statement that represented Paxson's mission. During this dialogue, we asked ourselves the questions "Who and what are we when we are at our very best?" and "What is it we strive to become?"

As you might imagine, this was not an easy task.. Mission statements do not simply roll of the collective tongues of 25+ people. After hours of dialogue and discussion, we arrived on a statement that we felt represented our goals and ideas. It reads as follow:

"We communicate and collaborate to create a safe community that nurtures the whole child. We guide individual learners to reach their full potential, practice kindness, gain a global perspective, and persevere through challenging and integrated learning experiences. At Paxson our students, regardless of circumstance, know that they are valued, capable, and celebrated." (Cont. on page 3)

Every time I read through this statement, I fall more in love with it. There are words and phrases that jump out to me every time I come across them.

The first word is “collaborate.” We are a school that almost exclusively uses the phrase “our kids” over “my kids.” Why? As of the coming school year, not a single one of our students will only have one teacher. Make no mistake: this is a strength. Having multiple pairs of eyes on every student multiplies the number of people invested in every kiddo. We all celebrate growth and notice students in their tougher moments. We then share these with one another so we can better support each student.

“Whole Child:” At Paxson, we recognize that there is so much more to an individual child than their scores, abilities, and aptitudes. Our deepest desire is for every student to know, at a conscious and subconscious level, that they are valued, capable, and celebrated. In the classroom this year students will be learning about the Zones of Regulation; a curriculum designed to help students understand their own emotions and feelings and the impact these have on others. In September parents will be invited to Paxson for an evening where they can learn more about this exciting curriculum.

“Practice kindness” Last year we celebrated our first “Two Weeks of Kindness” event, during which time each one of our students learned ways in which they can practice kindness and reflected on how their actions affect the lives of others. We will be celebrating “Two Weeks of Kindness” in October this year, and we will be returning to the principles learned throughout the entire year.

“Global Perspective:” Language is a gateway to communication, and communication is ultimately how we are able to learn about and celebrate those who are different than ourselves. As of this school year, every Paxson student is enrolled in our Spanish Language Immersion program. This means that for a portion of the day, our students will be learning Common Core Content Standards in the Spanish language. This program is the result of years of hard work by the faculty, staff, and community of Paxson.

I think I speak for all of us here at Paxson when I say that we are anxious for the arrival of the first day of school. There is truly nothing quite like the energy of the students in the first days of fall. Please contact me at any time if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Peter J. Halloran, Paxson Principal

We are launching a new program call Ben’s Bells. More on this in October.

October Kindness Weeks

October’s focus on kindness kicks off Oct. 9—18th and will feature games, activities and an all-school assembly to kick off and wrap up this event.

All students will read , “Have you Filled A Bucket Today?” in Spanish and English. Students will participate in daily classroom activities, play Kindness Bingo, experience random acts of kindness, show gratitude, and hold a drive for the Humane Society, all while promoting being kind and thoughtful to others.

Kindness Pledge

I pledge to myself

On this very day

To try to be kind

In every way.

To every person

Big or small,

I will help them

If they fall.

When I love myself

And others too,

That is the best

That I can do.
