

Annual Library EGGstravaganza

March 21-29, 2016

Celebrate spring by participating in this year's EGGstravaganza!

It's fun! As a family, decorate an egg to go with a favorite book. The egg can easily turn into a character's head, part of a setting, or almost anything. Use plastic eggs, Styrofoam eggs, or hard-boiled eggs. Feel free to incorporate craft supplies, props, etc. The total size of your project should be about the size of a shoebox, due to space limitations.

Bring the project, the book that goes with it and a completed entry form to the library. A panel of impartial judges will be awarding prizes in many categories! Projects and prizes will be sent home before spring break.

During conferences the library will be open for everyone to admire the submissions and see the prizes the eggs have won. I look forward to seeing how creative the children will be this year. Need inspiration? Check out the Reading events page at
