

American Psychological Association (APA) Abbreviated Style Rules

General guidelines:

Margins: 1 inch

Font/Size: Times New Roman, size 12

Double-spaced

References: centered

Hanging indent for citations

Alphabetized citations

General order of citation: Author(s). (Date). Title of work. Publication, Details. URL or DOI

Author's Name: Last name, first initial. middle initial. (up to and including seven authors).

For example: Jones, B. R., & Smith, J. L.

Government or corporate site: List full name of agency. (American Psychological Associations)

No author given: Move the title of article to the author position, alphabetize by first significant word of the title.

If editor(s):

Whole Book - Editor, A. A. (Ed.). (2016). Title of work. Location: Publisher.

Chapter - Author, A. A. (2016). Title of chapter or entry. In A. Editor & B. Editor (Eds.), Title of work (pp. xx-xx). Location: Publisher.

Date: (Year, Month Day) Spell out month. If there is no date given use (n.d.).

Title of Work (Webpage, Article, Chapter or Book titles): Capitalize only the first word of the title and subtitle, and proper nouns that appear in the title. Only italicize book titles.

Title of Publication (Website/Periodical/Journal): Use Italics. Capitalize all words in publications (except a, and, the, or, of, etc.). Example: Journal of Infectious Diseases

Other Publication Details: Periodicals - italicize volume number after the periodical title, then add issue number and page numbers (no italics). Example: Journal Name, 2(1), 58-71.

Print book - include Location: Publisher. Example: Hatchet. New York: Scholastic.

URL/Retrieval Information: No ending punctuation follows online retrieval information

For URL, use

Retrieved from <http://www.xxxxxxxx.xxx>

For DOI (Digital Object Identifier), use doi:xx.xxxxxxxx (no space after colon)

Title Page

Title should be fully explanatory when standing alone

Page number is included in Running Head

Center title and your name vertically and horizontally on the page

Header

Running Head: TITLE OF PAPER

1

Running Head: TITLE on first page, TITLE only on following pages

Numeric page number on right side of all pages and use only digit(s)

In-text citation (Author's last name, year of publication, page # if applicable).

Include paragraph # or page # after date. (Smith, 2016, para. 2). (Smith, 2016, pp. 1-2).

If no date or no page number, use only information given. (Smith, 2016). (Smith, p. 71).

If no author, use first few words of title in place of author. (Schizophrenia facts, 2016).

Block quote
