

Responsibility and Communication Graphic Flow

Section 504 Team

While exact accommodation team members can vary, this represents typical team members for a student with life threatening allergies. Learning opportunities and safety for the student is the focus. Students should attend as age appropriate. The principal is ultimately responsible for accomodation plan implementation. This diagram represents responsibility flow. Communciation between staff isn't shown but is present and continous.

