What: This is a 4 day camp to get more middle school and incoming high school students interested in theater. Campers will learn not only about performing but also the technical and backstage work that goes into putting on a show.

Who: Camp is open to all Missoula area students entering 7th*- 9th grade in the summer of 2018.

When: July 30th – August 2nd, 2018. Camp will start at 9:30am and end at 12:30pm all 4 days, with a show at 6pm on the last day. There will be rehearsal time prior to the show, which will be announced during camp.

Where: All activities will take place at the Big Sky High School drama department.

Cost: $35 per student, no one will be turned away due to ability to pay. All proceeds go towards the running of camp and Thespian productions during the school year.

Showcase: On the last day, Thursday the 2nd of August at 6pm there will be a show including skits, dances and songs created and performed by the campers for friends and family. There is no cost of admission for the show but donations are welcome.
