

COMMUNITIES: Participate in Multilingual Communities at home and around the world.

Learning world languages enables students to participate in multilingual communities at home and around the world in a variety of contexts and in culturally sensitive ways. World language learning is a skill that has lifelong implications for the enhancement of career options as well as the enrichment of one's perspective in everyday life.

STANDARDS:

5.1: Students apply language skills and cultural knowledge in daily life.

5.2: Students show evidence of becoming life-long learners by using the language for personal enjoyment and enrichment.
