

ADMINISTRATION

Required Administrative Certification

Administrators employed by the District must have notification from the Office of Public Instruction that the administrator is eligible for the appropriate Montana certification and will certify in a timely manner in relation to the time of employment. Further, such certification must be maintained throughout the period of employment.

Policy History:

Adopted on: December 9, 1997