

ADMINISTRATION

Professional Association Memberships

Administrative personnel are encouraged to participate in professional associations which have as their purposes the growth and development of school administration and the continued improvement of student learning.

Policy History:

Adopted on: December 9, 1997