

English I

Course Syllabus 2019-2020

Ms. Schick

Email: aeschick@mcps.k12.mt.us

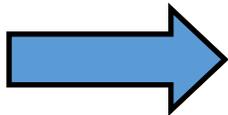

Room: 111

Phone: (406) 728-2400 x7651

Google Classroom

Google Classroom is the place to see the weekly schedule, due dates, assignments, and to find links for resources to assist you with coursework. You will also turn in some assignments here.

Enrollment Codes:

Period 3 geai85
Period 4 hlpadu
Period 5 zgdh1oh

No Red Ink

No Red Ink is an online grammar program that is used to supplement teacher instruction (Noredink.com). You work at your own pace and level. You can access this site from home.

Enrollment Codes:

Period 3 spotty cake 48
Period 4 complete pepper 12
Period 5 smiling knot 99

Overview

English I is based upon Montana Common Core Standards. You will read literary and informational texts from many subject areas and across many cultures.

You will hone your writing skills by writing four major essays: personal narrative, informative (research), argumentative, and literary analysis. You will study grammar, Greek roots, literary terms, and vocabulary as well. You can expect to grow as a writer, reader, and public speaker. Great skills are coming your way!

Expectations:

- ♦ Be kind.
- ♦ Be respectful.
- ♦ Celebrate each other's successes.
- ♦ Be prepared.
- ♦ Be accountable.
- ♦ Be a hard worker
- ♦ Be thoughtful

What supplies do I need for English?

- ⇒ A 2-3 inch binder with 6–index dividers just for this class
- ⇒ A small package of loose-leaf paper
- ⇒ A pack of highlighters or colored pens/pencils for annotating texts (at least 4 colors)
- ⇒ A sharpened pencil AND a pen (any color)
- ⇒ An independent book to read

Ms. Schick provides the labeled, divider pages for each section. You will have class time to place your dividers, set up your tabs, and place your loose-leaf paper. Just bring your materials to class.

HOW TO SUCCEED

- I. Follow the classroom expectations.
- II. Keep up with the reading! It will usually be less than twenty pages per night.
- III. Engage and participate in class.
- IV. Ask for help! Communicate with Ms. Schick.
- V. Be willing to edit your work multiple times and to be open to challenges. The deepest learning is done when we understand and correct our mistakes.

Assignment Extension & Late Work Policy

If you fill out an “Extension” form and Ms. S. has agreed to it, your assignment will not receive reduced credit. If your printer is not working, email Ms. S. your assignment on time and then turn it in by hand the end of the next school day (use the library printer).

If your work is late, you must turn in a “Late Work” form with your assignment.

First day late –10%

By Friday of the week due—25%

Longer than that— 50%

What if I miss class?

If you know you are going to be absent, get your work ahead of time. See Ms. Schick outside of class to get it whenever possible. If you are unexpectedly absent, check Google Classroom to see what you missed. When you return, visit the “Absent Area” in the classroom to get handouts and speak with me to verify you know what you need to do.

You should plan to turn in any assignments that were due the day you missed on the very day you return. You have two days to make up new work when you have an excused absence.

If you have an extended absence, you will have more time.

Grading

You will be graded evenly and on a point system across these content areas:

Composure (adherence to class expectations)

Speaking and listening

Writing

Reading Comprehension

90-100	A
80-89.9	B
70-79.9	C
60-69.9	D
0-59.9	F

Extra Credit Policy

Yes, there are extra credit opportunities! You can receive up to 20 points extra credit each semester.

1. Do the extra credit offered on the bulletin board in the back of the classroom.
2. See a play, performance, or lecture. Write a one-page review. (up to 10 points)
3. Read an extra Red Dot book! You will receive points for up to two books per semester. (10 points per quiz taken with an 8/10 or higher)
4. Take note of a grammatical mistake in a publication such as an advertising campaign. Cut it out, paste it on a piece of paper, and write why it is incorrect. Then re-write the statement correctly (up to 5 points).

Independent

Reading

Red Dot Books

You are required to read one Red Dot per semester. The books must be at your current reading level and should be ones you find enjoyable!

After you read the book, you will go to the library and ask a librarian to set you up to take the test.

1. You must score 8/10 or higher
2. Three retakes available
3. Print your score and bring it to Ms. Schick.

See Ms. Schick or a librarian if you have questions!

Plagiarism / Cheating

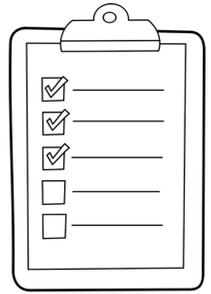

There is a school-wide ZERO tolerance policy for plagiarism. You are expected to provide original content in all writing assignments. Have no fear, I will teach you all about how to use other's ideas correctly in class!

First Infraction - Zero on the assignment

Second Infraction - Referral to administration and possible removal from class

Know the Essentials

- ⇒ Cell phones: You are required to silence and put your cell phone in the cell phone storage area upon entering the room. There are times when they will be allowed, though it will not be frequent. This is part of your weekly grade.
- ⇒ Eating and Drinking: Water is great! Small snacks are fine as long as they do not smell strongly. Please no sugary drinks. Healthy food and drink = healthy minds that are ready to learn
- ⇒ Passes: You will receive two passes per semester. If you don't use them, you can turn them in for extra credit on the last day of the semester.
- ⇒ Be on Time: School tardy policy is followed. Be in the room and actively preparing for class when the bell rings.

Quick Writes

You will respond to writing prompts in your notebook throughout the course. This offers a chance to reflect on topics we are discussing in English.

Due to the large amount of quick writes, I collect notebooks and choose just a few entries to read. I do not always read each and every log due to time constraints. Your grade is based upon your effort.

Make sure to let Ms. Schick know if there is an entry you would particularly like her to read. Please keep in mind that if you write something that causes her to be concerned about your well-being, know that she will be compelled (and obligated) to share that concern with the school counselor and/or your parents. This school staff cares about you!

What will we read in Freshman English?

A compilation of Short Works

Night by Elie Wiesel

Of Mice and Men by John Steinbeck

The Odyssey by Homer

Romeo and Juliet by Shakespeare

Poetry

Non-fiction articles

Two Independent Books (Red Dot)

Ms. Schick
Sentinel High School English Department
aeschick@mcps.k12.mt.us / 728- 2400 x7651
Room 111

Dear Parents and Guardians,

I find great excitement and gratification in teaching young people and am honored to have the opportunity to teach your son or daughter this year. This is my 9th year in the classroom and my 16th in education. I am always impressed by the creativity high school students possess and look forward to preparing your child to grow as a reader, writer, and communicator.

Please visit my Google Classroom site with your child to see what we are learning, our weekly agenda, what is due when, and to find learning resources. The Q parent portal is a great way to see your child's grades in all of his or her classes. You can expect your child to have some homework every night. It will usually be reading (either a classroom text or your child's independent reading book).

Please read and discuss the items outlined in the class syllabus with your child and verify that you have by signing below. Your support is integral to your child's success. Feel free to be in touch throughout the year.

Sincerely,
Annie Schick

I have read and discussed the items outlined in the syllabus with my kiddo.

Student Name (print please):

Parent Name (print please):

